INSIDE THE CHINESE CLOSET
Netherlands • 72 min.

Does being gay in China pose mainly practical problems? Andy and Cherry keep the truth about their sexual orientation from their families, and decide to arrange a fake marriage. The film focuses primarily on their private lives, but it also addresses the illegal adoption market and surrogacy.

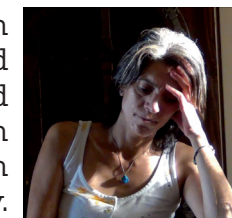

ALICE CARES
Netherlands • 80 min.

In a program made by social workers, robot Alice is about to become a caregiver of three octogenarians. Although they might not trust the robot, grannies eventually start to converse with her. The documentary shows the future of species made by modern technology and discusses loneliness and aging.

A SYRIAN LOVE STORY
UK • 87 min.

Raghda and Amer met in prison, fell in love and raised a family. The director started filming their story when Raghda was back in prison and Amer took care of family. When Raghda is finally released, the director is imprisoned. The family is in danger and Raghda leaves Syria. Dreams are shattered. The marriage is as fragile as the situation in Syria.

OUT OF FASHION
Estonia • 58 min.

To create her collection, designer Reet Aus uses textiles that would normally end up in a landfill. While following the trail of the fashion industry, Reet discovers how the overproduction wastes the planet's resources. Reet's ambition is to convince the management of fashion corporations about the need for upcycling. Is she just a dreamer?

THE BABUSHKAS OF CHERNOBYL
USA, Ukraine • 72 min.

After the Chernobyl disaster, the area around the nuclear reactor became no-man's land. However, there is life in this forbidden zone. Women who illegally returned home after the forced evacuation live in the wooden shacks and work in their small fields. The ever-present radiation is of no concern – leaving their homes would be worse.

RADICAL GRACE
USA • 75 min.

Simone, Jean and Chris are nuns, but also feminists and advocates for equal rights and better social system in the US. Their liberal opinions outraged the Vatican so much they were put under the supervision of bishops with the aim of repressing their emancipation. The film is a intense portrayal of the personal strength in fight against the powerful institution.
